To ensure the acceptance of a Deaflympics, Deaf Championships, or Deaf World Record, it is crucial to adhere to established rules and guidelines. Our comprehensive Performance Record Policy can be found at <http://ciss.org/icسد/performance-records-policy>. It is the responsibility of any athlete or official representing their National Deaf Sports Federation, who submits a record application, to thoroughly understand and comply with these regulations.

Please scan all required documents, as listed above, and send them to office@ciss.org. Our office will process your submission and forward it to the respective sport directors who specialise in the relevant sports area. The sport director will review all the information provided in your application form. Once reviewed, the sport director will finalise and send the information to the ICSD Chief Executive Office for the final ratification.

Additionally, please send the original documents to the ICSD Office, as shown above.

* NATIONAL DEAF SPORTS FEDERATION - This notice exclusively applies to World Deaf Records. Signatures from the NDSF are not required for Deaflympics and/or World Deaf Championships, as ICSD Sport Directors and/or ICSD representatives were present at these events.
